

Principal's Message

This month our parent teacher meetings will be held on the 20th and 21st of November. Don't forget to book your slot by Monday 18th November. Our student council look forward to welcoming you and directing you to the relevant classrooms or support rooms. They will be delighted to help.

Christmas Concert

The dates and times of the Senior Christmas Concert have been released this week. We all look forward to some annual festive fun!

November

Junior Infants 2025

Applications opened on the 11th of November through an aladdin link on stops.ie. The closing date is the 6th of January.

Club Draw Voluntary Contribution

Over 100 families have already signed up to our school Club Draw. Money raised goes towards educational resources that all our children benefit from

Vincent de Paul

This year the children will be given a tag for a gift donation. The suggested amount is €10 per family and will help many families in need this Christmas.

Annie

We are currently finalising the recording of our wonderful musical held last June. A link will be available soon!

Sports Corner

Boys and girls basketball teams are back up and running. They both won their first games against Lusk last week and we're playing Rush this week! We will also be entering the cup. Both teams also got brand new sets of gear and are proud to wear them to their games this year! Well done!

Well done to our senior gaa team and Mr Eagney who represented our school with pride and fortitude in the final in Croke Park. While narrowly defeated in the end by Scoil Assaim BNS Raheny, they played brilliantly and fought til the end. An amazing achievement.

Parents Association

The PA are delighted to announce that Dr Richard Hogan will be presenting to parents on Monday 25th November. "Parenting the tech savvy child" will describe key issues to be aware of as parents, and will offer some tools and exercises to help you agree suitable boundaries and expectations with your children. It is open to all classes. The event will take place in the school hall at 7.30pm. Tickets will cost €5 and are available to purchase on Aladdin.
